

Please, please, please stop testing on animals. I know there are other ways to get the same results. As I am sure you know, animals have pain feelings just like humans and God tells us to watch over them and protect them. I am a voter from San Francisco, CA and always contact my senators and representatives about my beliefs and I am hopeful that very, very soon all animal testing will be outlawed.

Ann Clark